1. Go to the ReadWriteThink website
   http://www.readwritethink.org/files/resources/interactives/trading_cards_2/
2. Create 4 character trading cards from characters in your book.

Harry Potter
Fictional Person

1 Description

Source:
Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone by J.K. Rowling

Appearance:
Harry is a 12 year old boy with wispy dark hair, glasses, and a scar on his forehead.

Personality:
At first, Harry is shy. With the help of his friends, Ron and Hermonie, he becomes outgoing and brave.

2 Insights

Thoughts:
Harry thinks that Lord Voldemort is back and is trying to hurt him and his friends. So, Harry is always thinking of that.

Feelings:
Harry often feels alone in this world. However, Harry feels great loyalty to his friends.

by: Lisa

3 Development

Problem:
At first, Harry's problem is coping with his new environment at the Hogwarts School for Magic.

Goal:
Harry wants to prove that Lord Voldemort is back, defeat him, and keep the wizarding world safe.

Outcome:
Somewhat. Harry succeeds in keeping the Sorcerer's Stone from Lord Voldemort and chasing him away, but he might come back.

4 Memorable Interactions

Quote:
"Give it here, Malfoy, or I'll knock you off your broom!"

Action:
I was really glad to see Harry stand up for himself and gain a little courage.

Interactions:
Harry got along well with his friends and the other characters who were nice to him. The others, not so well.

5 Personal Connection

Personal Connection:
Yes, I do like Harry Potter. He seems to always have good intentions, is loyal to his friends, and is not afraid to fight the evil forces.